short bio

Ash Bulayev is a director/choreographer and media artist, and is a co-Artistic Director of amorphy.org, in collaboration with choreographer Tzeni Argyriou.

He has lived in New York City from 1991-2003, where he has created multiple original productions ranging from site-specific/multi-location work, interactive installations to dance/theater projects which were presented in U.S.A., Spain, Germany, Egypt, Portugal, Bulgaria, Holland, and Greece.

Since 2003 he works and lives in Greece, where with amorphy.org has presented: 'Impossible Interviews Draft B' (2009) – Athens (Greece); 'The Cave' (2009) – Thessaloniki (Greece) & Rotterdam (Netherlands); 'Impossible Interviews Draft A' (2009) – DTW (New York City); 'AlphaOmega' (2008) – Athens (Greece); 'See You in Walhalla' (2006/7) – Athens, Amsterdam, Sofia and Athens Festival; 'Invisible Cities 1.0' (2005) - 12th Naples Biennale (Italy), Theater of Neos Kosmos (Greece); 'But Secretly We Thirst' (2005) – MAD Festival (Athens); 'Psycho/Cycle' (2004) - Dock 11 (Berlin), Theater Semio (Greece); 'Shedding' (2004) - InteraktionsLabor (Germany); '1,170,694' (2004) – Site-Specific Work (Greece);

He has been awarded and participated in several Artist-in-Residency programs: PACT Zollverien (2005) - Essen, Germany; InteraktionsLabor Media Lab (2004, 2006) – Germany; HERE Arts Center (2002 – 2003) – New York City.
